

Sales Idea - Mortgage Protection with Acci-Flex

As Millennials buy homes, start families or build businesses, protecting the ones they love and their assets — like their homes — becomes important. Accidents are the leading cause of death for this generation¹ and nearly half of Americans can't afford an emergency expense of $400.² Acci-Flex accidental death insurance is an affordable solution that can help give your clients peace of mind that their families can stay in their homes if the unexpected occurs.

Client Scenario

Annie is a married 29-year-old real estate agent and earns $55,000 a year. She and her husband just bought a $200,000 home. Expenses are tight and savings are low. Annie is looking for extra coverage to protect her income the family depends on to cover her mortgage, at a price she can afford.

Opportunity

Acci-Flex accidental death insurance pays benefits directly to Annie's husband if her death is the result of an accident. An optional Accident-Only Disability Income Rider provides up to $1,800 per month if Annie suffers a total disability caused by an accident. Annie gets affordable premiums and same-day underwriting with E-Apps, with no medical exams.
